1. Background

- 1.1 This report sets out details of appointments to vacancies and appointments up for re-election.

2. Update

- 2.1 It was reported as part of the proportionality review of Schools Forum at its meeting on 15 July 2022 that there were a number of appointments up for re-election as terms of office were coming to an end :

Maintained Appointments x 1

- 1 Maintained School Governor - Paul Stratford - Chair of Governors, Alderman Payne Primary School (Vice-Chairman)

Academy Appointments x 3

- Jon Culpin - Chief Executive Officer of Anglian Learning (Chairman)
- Richard Spencer - Principal, Ely College
- Patsy Peres - Principal, Ramsey Spinning Infant and Ramsey Junior

There was also one retirement in relation to the Maintained Appointments:

- Primary Head Teacher Liz Bassett - Headteacher, Ely St Johns Primary School

- 2.2 Since the July 2022 report there was also notification that a new Pupil Referral Unit Representative, was required as Leah Miller had stepped down.

- 2.3 There has also been notification that a new Representative for the Roman Catholic Diocese of East Anglia, a non-voting Member, was required as Joe Mc Crossan had stepped down.

3. Appointments

- 3.1 It has now been confirmed that:

- Paul Stratford - Chair of Governors, Alderman Payne Primary School (Vice-Chairman) will remain as the Maintained School Governor.
- Nadine Gooding-Herbert, Headteacher - Pilgrim Pathways School is now the new Pupil Referral Unit Representative, replacing Leah Miller.
- Jon Culpin - Chief Executive Officer of Anglian Learning will remain as Chairman and Academy Representative.
- Richard Spencer - Principal, Ely College, will remain as an Academy representative.
- This leaves one vacancy for an Academy Representative
- Clare Clark will now be the new representative for Roman Catholic Diocese of East Anglia.
