- Online engagement: top performing articles include; an Elvis impersonator celebrating a care home resident's birthday, tips about increasing physical activity and spotting scams
- Information about celebrating #Ramadan@home was issued including a message from all PCC Cabinet Members

RISKS / CHALLENGES (AND MITIGATION)

- Considerable potential for reputational risk surrounded launch of online meetings at CCC– but good preparation by officers and Members mitigated that
- Concern to establish a countywide focus on the work of co-ordination hubs expressed by Members - mitigated by the launch of the new countywide 'highlights from the hub' newsletter -
- Increasing concern about scams targeted at vulnerable people and staff working remotely – campaigns developed or supported in both of these areas
- Increasing issues around mental health for residents and staff due to prolonged lockdown – Now We're Talking campaign due to launch from next week, partnered by BBC TV and Radio.

WORKFORCE UPDATE

- All staff working well remotely. Daily co-ordination of work and welfare checks.
- Reduction in support from Connecting Cambridgeshire comms staff as work for this project is now increasingly needed in the recovery sphere
- New Communications and Content Advisor – appointed just before the lockdown - has joined the team and is going through induction

FINANCIAL IMPACT (increase in costs / reduction in income)

- Nothing additional to report

RECOVERY ACTIVITY (plans being considered / future steps)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Picking up BAU as and when capacity allows and planning for what changes the team will want to keep from current working arrangements to maximise benefits of remote working.
