138.a	Review of Draft Revenue and Capital Business Planning Proposals for 2023-28	Debbie McQuade	Queried the Mental health section 75 vacancy factor and queried whether there were disadvantages resulting from these posts being vacant.  Officers explained that effectively they were not reducing the service in any way, the proposal was about a one-off reduction as the service could not recruit these staff at the moment. Officers highlighted that the funding would go back into the budget, in the next year as the expectation was that the service would still want to recruit the staff. Officers clarified that they would go back to colleagues to review the scoring of the proposal	CPFT confirmed that ongoing recruitment to vacancies is continuing to be progressed, there is no further disadvantage as the vacancies exist and it is a one off proposal re vacancy saving	Closed

142.	Insourcing of a Supported Living Service  Adults and Health –	Debbie	A member stated that he was surprised that the report was being taken in a public session as it referred specifically to allocating a contract to bring a service in house. He also asked whether this would set a dangerous precedent that providers could say that they would give up services as they could rely on the County Council to take services in house. The chair stated that the report had been through the relevant sign off process with legal colleagues and that this process had not raised any issues in terms of confidentiality. The chair explained that he would however reflect with officers on how similar reports would be brought to committee in the future outside of the meeting.	The decision to present the case to Members was consistent with the governance criteria. To ensure no confidential information was presented, the report removed the private organisations name. Officers would be content to have similar cases heard in private should Members decide that was appropriate.  Members should be assured that cases like this one is not frequent. Prior to this proposal being put to Members, extensive work was completed with the provider to establish if the service could remain in private ownership. This work was carried out over 2 years, and many ideas were tested before the change of sourcing recommendation was made. As a result we don't anticipate this sets a precedence.	Closed
