1. BACKGROUND

1.1 Legal framework

- 1.1.1 Chapter 7 of the Localism Act 2011 sets out the duty of a local authority to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by members and co-opted members of the authority.
- 1.1.2 Section 28 of the Act, on codes of conduct, requires an authority to provide for the appointment of at least one independent person whose views will be sought and taken into account in connection with the process for dealing with allegations that members have breached the code.
- 1.1.3 Section 28 sets out those persons who would not be considered to be independent, who include members, co-opted members and officers of the authority and their relatives and close friends. However, it provides that the person(s) appointed do not cease to be independent as a result of being paid allowances or expenses for performing the duties of the appointment.
- 1.1.4 Section 28 also sets out the conditions for the process of appointing such persons. These conditions are that
  - i. the vacancy has been advertised in such manner as the authority considers is likely to bring it to the attention of the public,
  - ii. the person has submitted an application to fill the vacancy to the authority, and
  - iii. the person's appointment has been approved by a majority of the members of the authority.

1.2 Local implementation

- 1.2.1 At an early stage of making arrangements to implement the Localism Act 2011, the Standards Committee concluded that it would be sensible to appoint two independent persons, in case one was not available, or already had prior knowledge of a complaint or the parties to the complaint. Full Council in July 2012 authorised 'the Monitoring Officer, in consultation with the Chairman of the Constitution and Ethics Committee, to take all necessary steps towards the selection of a suitable candidate to be recommended to Full Council for appointment as 'an Independent Person'.
- 1.2.2 A panel composed of members of the Constitution and Ethics Committee conducted the recruitment exercise, advertising the posts in the local press and on the Council's website, shortlisting applications, and interviewing shortlisted candidates. The panel recommended to Constitution and Ethics Committee in September 2012 that Sean Brady and Gillian Holmes be appointed, and the Committee recommended their appointment to Council.
- 1.2.3 On 16 October 2012, Full Council agreed to appoint Sean Brady and Gillian Holmes to the role of Independent Person for Cambridgeshire County Council with immediate effect for a period of one year, and to delegate to the Constitution and Ethics Committee the power to extend these appointments for up to a further three years thereafter. The Committee exercised that power on 7 November 2013, extending the appointments to 15th October 2016.

- 1.2.4 Because independent persons are not members or co-opted members of Council, their remuneration falls outside the Members' Allowances Scheme, and can be determined without reference to an Independent Remuneration Panel. The current independent persons receive an annual allowance of £500 each.
- 1.2.5 The 2012 recruitment exercise had been conducted jointly with the Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Fire Authority, who also appointed Sean Brady and Gillian Holmes to the role of Independent Person in October 2012. This appointment is also due to expire in October 2016.

2. CURRENT ISSUES

- 2.1 Arrangements are needed for Full Council to appoint one or more independent persons beyond 15 October 2016. The remuneration of these appointees must also be agreed.
- 2.2 In addition to a flat annual fee of £500, the current independent persons have their travelling and other expenses reimbursed whenever they are required to conduct Council business.
- 2.3 At its meeting on 19th April 2016, the Constitution and Ethics Committee was informed that it was possible to reappoint the existing two independent persons for a further period. Both had indicated that they were willing to serve if required. The Committee was advised that many other authorities had adopted a similar course particularly given the amount of training involved.
- 2.4 The Committee was of the view that the current two independent persons should be re-appointed for a period of three years. In view of the pressure on Council budgets and the low level of public sector pay increases, the Committee also took the view that there should be no change to this level of remuneration.
