

Part 3C – Joint Committees

Introduction

Full Council is empowered to establish joint committees together with other local authorities, and to delegate functions to those joint committees. This part contains a list of the joint committees which have been established by Full Council and sets out their composition, purpose and delegated functions. In addition, where there are special procedural rules these are also listed.