a) Motion from Councillor Hunt

Action

Chief Executive to write to the Head of The Crown Prosecution Service, the Chief Constable of Cambridgeshire and the Police and Crime Commissioner as set out in the resolution on Councillor Hunt's motion:

"This Council abhors any act that threatens our treasured democracy, puts candidates at any level at risk or makes voters reluctant to take part in an election process. We instruct the Chief Executive to write to the head of The Crown Prosecution Service, the Chief Constable of Cambridgeshire and the Police and Crime Commissioner to express our cross party opinion. We seek urgent and substantial action if/when further examples of this threat to our democracy occur. This Council considers this to be a serious matter and believes that firm, swift and transparent actions should be taken to deal with such threats and/or criminal damage."

Response

The three letters were sent from the Chief Executive's Office on 30th October.

A response was received on 10th November from the Office of the Police and Crime commissioner which was circulated to all members on 12th November and is included as a separate Appendix 1 to this update document.
