

Children and Young People Committee 5 July 2022

Change to the order of business from the published agenda

Councillor Bryony Goodliffe has exercised her discretion as Chair of the Children and Young People Committee to vary the order of business from the published agenda. Item 14: Response to the Local Government Ombudsman Report, will now be taken as the first substantive item of business after Item 4: Petitions and Public Questions.